Huckaby Briscoe Conroy (HBC) Group Announces Title Changes

McLean, VA – Karen Briscoe, principal of Huckaby Briscoe Conroy (HBC) Group with Keller Williams announced with pleasure the promotion of Lizzy Conroy to Partner from Vice President. In 2009 Lizzy joined Karen, thus forming the HBC Group. Over the past decade she has helped hundreds of clients and customers, truly proving her commitment to high professional standards. In 2018 Conroy posted $21.6M in residential sales. Briscoe states, “Having Lizzy Conroy as my business partner is a relationship made in heaven as we met at Trinity Church in McLean. Our real estate group has excelled because of Lizzy’s knowledge of the marketplace and commitment to serving the community.”

Another title change announced by Briscoe and Conroy was for Jenny McClintock who has been an agent on the HBC Group team for 5 years. Briscoe says, “We are delighted to announce that Jenny will assume the title of Vice President of the Huckaby Briscoe Conroy Group.” Over the years, McClintock has experienced strong growth in her residential sales volume reaching a career high of $13.1M in 2018. “Her commitment to lead generation and passion to help people find their next home or sell their existing home has really helped Jenny to excel. She is definitely a team player,” noted Conroy.

The Huckaby Briscoe Conroy Group is a leading residential real estate group in the McLean area, based with Internationally recognized Keller Williams brokerage. HBC Group represents clients primarily in Northern Virginia, and across the Potomac River in DC and suburban Maryland. The mission of the HBC Group is to “Impact and Improve People’s Lives.”
